

Exalted Ruler’s Quiz

Rev. 05/17/17

T F

1. () () Before installation, the Exalted Ruler-elect shall appoint an Esquire, a Chaplain, an Inner guard, a Tiler, an Organist, and a Vocalist, if an Organist or Vocalist is available.

2. () () Should any elected Officer fail, without good cause, to be present for installation at the time set for installation, or at a regular meeting of the Lodge within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Exalted Ruler shall declare the Office vacant.

3. () () A Member elected to fill a vacant Office may be installed on the night of election or at the next regular meeting.

4. () () The Exalted Ruler must attend all District Deputy Clinics unless excused for good cause.

5. () () The Exalted Ruler has the power to suspend a Member for violation of a Law of the Order.

6. () () The Exalted Ruler may suspend a Member from that meeting for conduct unworthy of a Member of the Order.

7. () () If the Exalted Ruler is suspended under Section 8.180 (Grand Lodge Statutes), the Exalted Ruler's duties shall devolve upon the other Chair Officers of the Lodge in order of their rank.

8. () () The Exalted Ruler should appoint a member to act in place of a suspended officer until final determination of the charges against the suspended officer or the term of office has expired.

Exalted Ruler’s Quiz - continued

Rev. 05/17/17

T F

9. () () At the annual election of Officers, the Exalted Ruler, or a Past Exalted Ruler, shall preside.
10. () () Questions arising on points of order in Lodges, shall, in the first instance, be decided by the Exalted Ruler. Any Member shall have the right of appeal to the Lodge: a two-thirds (2/3rds) vote is required to overrule the decision of the Exalted Ruler.
11. () () The Exalted Ruler, Secretary, and the Chaplain shall constitute the Standing Relief Committee of the Lodge.
12. () () The Exalted Ruler must appoint, at the first meeting after installation, a lawyer who is a Member, if available and, if not, he/she may appoint a Non-Member lawyer, as Presiding Justice of the Subordinated Forum.
13. () () The Exalted Ruler has the exclusive right to appoint all Lodge Committees, including a House Committee, as designated under Lodge By-Laws.
14. () () Members of the Activities Committee, who are appointed by the Exalted Ruler, are charged with the implementation of the patriotic activities planned by the Lodge, and to cooperate with other local organizations in fostering patriotic community endeavors.
15. () () The Exalted Ruler is permitted to allow a visiting Exalted Ruler or any Past Exalted Ruler to preside, or occupy a vacant Officer chair, at a Lodge meeting.