We are so appreciative and thankful that we found Speech and Language Pathologist Jocelyn. She is great with my daughter; she gives us clear and specific goals for us to work on between sessions. When Jocelyn is here, they sit down and get straight to work. Jackie knows when Jocelyn is coming and is excited to see her and work on her speech. We're still waiting for her pronunciation to carryover when we're not working on her speech, but she is definitely talking more and building confidence.
