Thank you again for your submitting your Lodge this prestigious award. I can assure you that every nomination received from the District AVPs will be equally reviewed and evaluated by the awards committee. Please include breakdowns and verifications for as many categories as possible. If two lodges as equal. more weight will be given to that will verification.

AVPs will receive an email notification confirming their packet have been received for review. No further communication will be sent to maintain a fair and equal review of your nominee's packet. Only the Lodge receiving The President's Achievement award will be announced, no other information on the other submissions will be shared to maintain the confidentiality and high regard for those nominated.

If you have any questions or concerns related to packet preparation, I recommend that you consult with your District Association Vice President. If your question cannot be satisfactorily addressed, I can be contacted at (949) 235-3288 or email: jamieMVSVElk@gmail.com. When calling, please leave me a voice mail with your name and contact information and allow me 24-48 hours to return your call.

Respectfully,

Jamie B Jasso
